

NATIONAL CALL FOR CANDIDATES

Chief Financial Officer, The Kentucky Center for the Performing Arts (Louisville, Kentucky)

The Kentucky Center for the Performing Arts seeks a proven leader to oversee all finance and IT functions for Kentucky's premier facility for the performing arts, a provider of arts and education programs, both statewide and locally, and a major economic development and tourism asset for the region. Partnering with the President and other senior managers to ensure business decisions are grounded in solid financial criteria; providing insight and analysis to support the President and other senior managers; leading key initiatives in finance that support overall strategic goals; funding, enabling, and executing the strategy set by the President and the Senior Staff; and representing the organization's progress on strategic goals to external stakeholders. The CFO reports to the President of the Center and supervises the VP, Finance and Director, IT.

QUALIFICATIONS: Successful candidates: will have 10+ years finance experience; experience with a nonprofit and/or public agency is preferred; Experience working harmoniously with a senior team and have high level of written and oral communication skills; Working knowledge in implementing effective and innovative software development methodologies in both accounting and IT departments; must possess a four-year BA degree, with preference given to candidates with a Masters in Finance or Business and having a current CPA or CMA designation(s). President, Kentucky Center for the Arts

ABOUT THE KENTUCKY CENTER FOR THE ARTS: The Kentucky Center was established by the Commonwealth of Kentucky and operates as a public/private partnership and has a $12 million operating budget that is made up of revenues from the earned income; state; state hotel/ motel tax; Kentucky Center Foundation income; and donations.

---

Applications accepted until such time that the Search Committee is satisfied with a pool of qualified finalists.
PLEASE CONTACT our Search Counsel (via mail or email only, please):

Mark W. Rountree, VP and Partner
Ashley| Rountree and Associates
2525 Nelson Miller Parkway, Suite 106
Louisville, KY 40223
<mailto:mroundtree@ashleyroutree.com>